

PERQUE

Vessel Health Guard™

LOWER HOMOCYSTEINE: IMPROVE HEALTH*

YOUR PERQUE VESSEL HEALTH GUARD

Healthy, flexible blood vessels and blood flow is essential to:

1. Bring fuel and remove toxic waste from vital organs like your heart, brain, intestines, muscles, kidneys, and liver.*
2. Keep blood vessels elastic and flexible for your full lifespan.*
3. Keep brain function clear and well-connected.*
4. Promote blood vessel health to avoid heart and blood vessel hardening, Alzheimer's senility, and thrombosis (platelet clumps and clots that block blood flow) linked to stroke and heart attacks.*

PERQUE Vessel Health Guard is the only natural and comprehensive solution to these problems.* It contains the fullest potency, safer, more effective forms of:

1. B-6 (pharmaceutical purity pyridoxine)
2. B-12 (pharmaceutical purity hydroxocobalamin)
3. Folate (folacin, vitamin M)
4. Magnesium as ascorbate

All of these are transport activated with mannitol and xylitol for uptake under your tongue as a lozenge.* This increases rapid, full delivery to your brain and other critical body organs.*

If you want to keep the flow of blood to vital organs alert and resilient as long as possible, PERQUE Vessel Health Guard is your health protector.*

PERQUE Vessel Health Guard can make a significant difference in your health.*

The difference in 5-year mortality risk was 1,000% or ten-fold different for those with the highest homocysteine, 100% or two-fold difference between the higher and lower levels of homocysteine.*

HOMOCYSTEINE LEVEL: MARKER OF ADEQUATE NUTRIENT INTAKE

Physicians use homocysteine levels to determine blood vessel health status. When your homocysteine level is less than 6:

- your blood vessels are healthier.
- your risk of excessive blood clotting (thrombosis) in the brain (stroke) or heart (coronary occlusion, blocked heart artery) or major blood vessel (arteriosclerosis or atherosclerosis) is lower.

Homocysteine levels tell if you have enough of certain nutrients that activate body catalysts (enzymes) essential for repairing blood vessels.

What about measuring B-12 levels? The standard (Schilling) B-12 test measures the amount of B-12 in the serum. This does not correlate well with the functional amount in your cells, which is why homocysteine levels are functionally predictive of B-12 need. For example, all people on "hypoglycemic" medications show a decrease in cellular B-12 and an increase in homocysteine levels even though their standard B-12 tests remain unchanged. (Gilligan MA. Metformin and vitamin B-12 deficiency. Arch Intern Med. 2002;162:484-485.)
